

Lorin Johnston's acts of selflessness and heroism in the line of duty exemplify the meaning of true public service. As a former mayor of Chattanooga, I am particularly proud and grateful for the bravery and dedication of officers like Lorin Johnston who enter into harm's way in order to keep us safe.

As we honor Officer Johnston, we also remember Sergeant Tim Chapin, a 26-year veteran of the Chattanooga Police Department, for paying the ultimate sacrifice.

I am proud to join my fellow Tennesseans in congratulating Officer Johnston on this well-deserved honor and in remembering law enforcement officers across the country who go above and beyond the call of duty to keep our communities safe.●

RECOGNIZING THE NEVADA MILITARY SUPPORT ALLIANCE

● Mr. HELLER. Madam President, today I wish to recognize an organization from my home State of Nevada whose continuous support of military servicemen and women and their families is truly inspiring. Their unwavering commitment to military families across the Silver State is unmatched and demonstrates their passion for those in need.

Members of our military serve the United States to preserve and protect our freedom, and for that I am forever grateful. They dedicate their lives to serving this great nation and constantly make sacrifices to ensure the safety of our country. Generations of Americans enjoy greater peace and security because of the tireless efforts of these brave men and women.

The Nevada Military Support Alliance provides comfort and care, both personal and financial, to the families and survivors of Nevada's fallen and returning patriots. When a soldier does come home from a war zone, returning to civilian life is not an easy task. Both the soldier and their families experience an incredible amount of stress during this transition. This is where the Nevada Military Support Alliance steps in. They offer unprecedented levels of assistance for Nevada military members and their families for the rarities of challenges they face on a day-to-day basis.

We can never do enough for our nation's veterans, but with the help of the Nevada Military Support Alliance, we can ensure that more assistance is provided. Their continued dedication to our active military, veterans, and their families is unparalleled and stands as an example for us all.

As the Nevada Military Support Alliance celebrates their Second Annual Gala this weekend, I want to thank them for everything they have given to Nevada's men and women in uniform and for ensuring that support is provided for these heroes. We owe our veterans and their families a great deal of gratitude for their personal sacrifices.

On behalf of everyone who enjoys the freedoms that are unique to our great nation, thank you.●
